Academic Integrity:

Academic integrity is a basic principle of the College's function. Midstate College students are expected to maintain a high level of academic honesty. Contrary actions may result in penalties such as failure of the assignment(s), a lesser grade on assignment(s), failure of the course and/or suspension from the College. The course instructor will review all submitted documents and supporting evidence in connection to the infraction. The course instructor will also review the student's personal file for other notifications of academic dishonesty before determining the level of action to be applied. The course instructor will complete the Academic Dishonesty Report form to document and describe the incident and actions taken, then kept on file. The student may appeal the decision to administration, whose decision will be final.

The following (plagiarism, cheating, deception, sabotage, computer misuse and copyright infringement) are included in the actions Midstate College considers behavior contrary to the academic integrity policy; however, the policy is not limited to these examples. Further discussion of consequences regarding academic dishonesty are addressed in the Student Handbook.

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism is using another person's words, either by paraphrase or direct quotation, without giving credit to the author(s). Plagiarism can also consist of cutting and pasting material from electronic sources by submitting all or a portion of work for assignment credit. This includes papers, computer programs, music, sculptures, paintings, photographs, etc. authored by another person without explicitly citing the original source(s). These actions violate the trust and honesty expected in academic work. Plagiarism is strictly against the academic policy of Midstate College. Its seriousness requires a measured, forceful response which includes consequences for inappropriate and/or no citation.

In courses containing writing assignments, the College promotes the use of Turnitin which compares the student's writing against previously submitted papers, journals, periodicals, books, and web pages. Students and instructors can use this service to reduce the incidence of plagiarism. This electronic resource has been found to conform to legal requirements for fair use and student confidentiality. It is able to provide a report to the student indicating the parts of the assignment that match.

Instructor Information:

Instructor: Dr. Brian Young

Midstate e-mail: bjyoung@midstate.edu

Office Phone: 309-692-4092

Office Hours: Please call or email and make an appointment to avoid any schedule conflicts.

Policies and Procedures:

1. Late work: Late work is not accepted and will result in a zero percent on any/all late assignments. Only in extreme extenuating circumstances will late work be accepted (and even in such circumstances, the student has the responsibility to notify the instructor in a timely manner and seek approval for extensions). Even if extensions are granted, late penalties in grading will still apply at the discretion of the instructor.

2. All Writing Assignments: This includes, but is not limited to, papers, essays, projects, essay questions on exams, homework assignments, and summaries. These assignments will supplement the textbook, additional readings, and online lectures to further your understanding and application of course material. Assignments may be turned in online via Turnitin (our online plagiarism software). Late papers will not be accepted (see above policy on late work). I expect college-level writing, appropriate for the level of class this is, and such writing will be will be graded on spelling and grammatical errors (run-on sentences, punctuation, etc) in addition to content.

3. Academic dishonesty: Cheating / plagiarism in any form will not be tolerated in this course and may result in the dismissal/suspension from the course/program/college. Do your own work! Not knowing the rules of plagiarism is not a valid defense. Check with me if you are not clear on what constitutes plagiarism.

4. Syllabi changes: The instructor reserves the right to change this syllabus at any time. Students will receive timely notice of all such changes via announcements made online in Moodle Rooms and/or via email.

Participation Requirements:

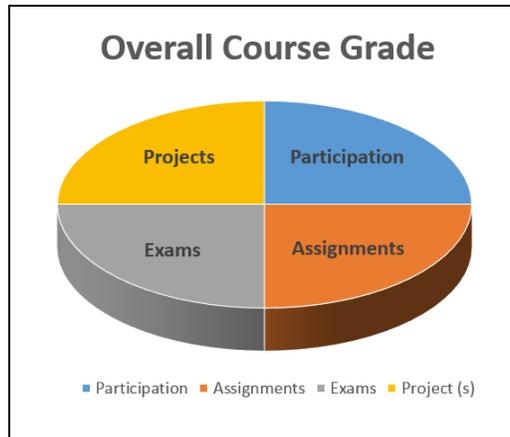

eLearning: In accordance with Midstate College policies, class material will be made available in our learning management system (Joule/Moodle Rooms) on Monday at 12:00 p.m. of each week and will remain available until the following Monday until 8:00 AM. This allows students one week to access the lecture and related material for that week's session, complete any assignments and/or assessments, and participate in the mandatory discussion and summary boards (see my discussion/summary requirements rubric in Moodle Rooms to ensure full credit in forums). Students must "submit substantial gradable work" in order to be marked as present for each week (see the Midstate eLearning policy on attendance in the student eLearning handbook). While each week extends from Monday at 12:00 PM to the following Monday at 8:00 AM, the instructor has the right to set due dates at their discretion within each week. For instance, your initial discussion posts are due Thursday nights by Midnight. Certain assignments, exams, and papers/projects may be due in the middle of the week at specified days and times.

Instructor's Grading Scale:

Participation (discussion/summary for online classes)	25%
Assignments (homework, case studies, etc)	25%
Exams & Quizzes	25%
Papers/Projects (Mini Essays, etc.)	25%

Instructor will use the online Moodle Rooms gradebook for all students in the course.

Please note that I use percentages so actual points per assignment are somewhat arbitrary. Often students see that my discussion/summary forums are five points each, whereas a homework assignment may be worth 100 points. On a point system, the discussion would have a much smaller effect on your grade than the assignment. However, on my percentage system, both of these tasks essentially have the same impact on the grade. Please see the chart below for a visual, and please reach out if you have any questions.
